"I believe it is the leading foreign missionary magazine in the world." — A Congregational layman.

The Missionary Herald for 1918

There are bound to be immense happenings in 1918. And not in Europe alone; in Asia and Africa, also. We are realizing at last that the world is one; as one it will be lost or saved. We need as never before to keep watch on foreign missions, for they are one of the big forces in the making over of this world. It is inexcusable longer to say, "I don't care about foreign missions," or "I don't know about them."

NOW IS THE TIME to renew subscriptions and to secure Church Clubs for THE MISSIONARY HERALD for 1918

Will you not act at once?

Single subscriptions, 75 cents; clubs of ten or more, 50 cents each

Address: JOHN G. HOSMER, Agent, 14 BEACON STREET, BOSTON

"You must not make it so good; it puts to shame our magazine." — A friend of another denomination.
